

Harold C. Smith New Head Of State Legion.

Harold C. Smith, of Rockville, was elected State Commander at the annual meeting of the Department of Maryland, American Legion, which closed at Cumberland last Saturday afternoon. Ocean City, backed by Eastern Shore posts, was named as the meeting place for August next year. The other officers are:

Vice-Commanders—Baltimore District, Bushrod R. Watts; Western Maryland, Rudolph Nickel; Southern Maryland, John A. Johnson; Eastern Shore, Dr. J. R. Norris.

Chaplain—The Rev. Dr. Scott Wagner, Hagerstown.

Treasurer—Paul Johnson, Baltimore.

Historian—Miss Margaret Collison, Baltimore.

Sergeant At Arms—Claude Freeburger, Baltimore.

Judge Advocate—Israel Aiello, Hyattsville.

Mr. Smith, the new State Commander, is an attorney of Rockville. He served as a private in the Seventeenth Infantry, U. S. A., in the Eleventh, or Lafayette Division.

Harold C Smith New Head of State Legion

Clipped By:
OneOldNewspaperFan
Feb 18, 2026